Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with us, you have a duty at common law to disclose to us every matter you know, or could reasonably be expected to know that a prudent insurer would want to take into account in deciding whether to insure you and, if so, on what terms. This applies to all persons to be covered under this contract of insurance.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however, does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be insured;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or in the ordinary course of our business we ought to know;
- that we state to you that we do not want to know.

Non-disclosure or misrepresentation

If you make a material misrepresentation to us, or if you do not comply with your duty of disclosure, we may treat your policy as if it never existed.

False statement and Fraudulent acts

Your policy is based on the information supplied to us by you or on your behalf.

All statements made by you or on your behalf on the proposal and/or questionnaire, in support of this policy, on any claim form or in support of any claim must be true and correct.

If you take any action or make any statement in connection with this policy or any claim made under it, which is fraudulent in any way or which is supported by untrue or incorrect information, we are entitled to avoid this policy and all benefits under it will be forfeited.

Information about this insurance

The policy

Property in the home or on business premises is normally insured but insurance for the same property while in transit is often overlooked or is difficult to arrange.

Specified Items in Transit Insurance provides protection in a simple and inexpensive policy. Almost any kind of property regularly transported in any registered road vehicle can be insured by individually listing the items and their value.

The annual premium is based on the type of specified item carried and the required sum insured. There is no need to record the number of trips taken or to make annual declarations.

This low cost alternative to other forms of insurance is suited to a wide variety of items and equipment for tradesmen, professional people, small business, sporting groups, schools and associations.

The policy is designed to insure the same specific items regularly carried. Where goods are only being collected or delivered it is recommended to complete instead a proposal form for either Goods in Transit (Own Vehicles) Insurance or Goods in Transit Insurance.

Important

The information contained in this proposal is an outline of the cover provided. Full details of the cover with all limitations, exclusions and conditions are contained in the policy. The terms and conditions offered to you may vary from the information on cover given in this proposal form.

Insured events

The policy is designed to cover the main transit risks at an affordable premium. Theft is included but cover is restricted when a vehicle is left unattended.

The actual insured events are:

Loss of or damage to items caused by

- fire, explosion, lightning or Flood

- collision of the vehicle carrying the items with any external object
- collision of the items while on the vehicle carrying them with something not on or part of that vehicle
- overturning or jackknifing of the vehicle
- theft while the vehicle is attended
- theft while the vehicle is unattended only if theft follows
 - (i) forcible entry into a locked vehicle or carrying compartment
 - (ii) theft of the locked vehicle itself
 - (iii) any other insured event.

Other benefits at no extra Cost

- debris removal up to $50,000.

Principal risks excluded

- delay, loss of market or consequential loss of any description
- mechanical or electrical breakdown or malfunction of items where no external evidence exists of damage from an insured event
- cyber attack.

Sum insured

To recover the full amount of any loss it is essential to select sums insured to cover the values of specified items which represent the cost of replacing the items by similar items of the same age and condition. If specified items are insured for half their value then only half the premium may be charged but only half the claim will be paid.

Settling your claim

When a claim is payable we will promptly pay:

- the sum insured of lost or destroyed items, or
- the reasonable cost of repairing damaged items or of reinstating or replacing items with similar items of the same age and condition, subject to the adequacy of the sum insured and any excess that applies.

We will also pay any costs incurred in preventing or minimising an insured loss or to protect rights against a third party.
